for applicants

What we use your data for

We process your data for the purpose of conducting application management. In doing so, we process the data that you provide to TRUMPF in your application documents. The legal basis for data processing is the fulfilment of pre-contractual measures (Art. 6 para. 1 letter b of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) or Sec. 26 of the Federal Data Protection Act (FDPA) for applicants residing in the European Union or Germany).

If the data is required for legal proceedings after completion of the application process, data processing may be carried out to safeguard legitimate interests (for applicants residing in the EU according to Art. 6 para. 1 letter f GDPR). Our interest lies in the defence against claims.

Forwarding of Data

Within our company, your data will only be accessed by those departments that need it to fulfil the above-mentioned purposes. If necessary, your data will be forwarded within the group in order to ensure more efficient personnel management (Art. 6 para. 1 letter f DSGVO). TRUMPF ensures the security of your data on the basis of contractually assured guarantees and with technical and organisational measures.

How long we store your data

Your data will be processed for the first time from the time of collection and will be deleted 6 months after completion of the application process. In the event that you have agreed to further storage of your personal data, we will delete the data after the agreed period has expired.

Right to withdraw consent

If you have consented to the processing by making a corresponding declaration (e.g. for consideration for other positions or longer-term storage of your application documents), you can withdraw your consent at any time with effect for the future. We will then no longer process your personal data for the collected purpose.

To withdraw your consent, please contact karriere@de.trumpf.com.
