TRUMPF Inc. Opens Technology Center in California

FARMINGTON, Conn. September 11, 2019 – TRUMPF Inc. has announced the opening of its state-of-the-art Technology Center located in Costa Mesa, California. The 20,000 sq. ft. facility demonstrates TRUMPF's commitment to its customers by serving as a machine training and demonstration center in the Western Region.

The company's precision laser, punch, and bending capabilities showcased in the Technology Center's 13,000 sq. ft. showroom, offers guests and customers the opportunity to experience seven machines from TRUMPF's product portfolio along with hands-on training. When visiting, guests can also experience TRUMPF's TruServices, TruConnect, and TruTops Software solutions to gain insight and knowledge on how their manufacturing processes can be fully optimized.

Remote connectivity to the TRUMPF Smart Factory in Hoffman Estates, Illinois makes it possible to view additional TRUMPF equipment, in real-time and highlights the company's Industry 4.0 solutions for manufacturing. "We are excited about this new step for TRUMPF," explains Marcel Fink, who will lead the TRUMPF Technology center in Costa Mesa. "It has enabled us to better serve our customers West of the Rocky Mountains and present to them TRUMPF's latest technology advancements."
